PRESS RELEASE

April 21, 2006

The Jesup Housing Authority recently partnered with the Sheriff John Carter and the Wayne County Sheriff's Department to provide Neighborhood Watch training for residents of the Jesup Housing Authority. The training provided tips and insights for JHA residents to recognize scams and suspicious activity. The JHA hopes to further improve upon the security of its neighborhoods with this training. During fiscal year 2005 for the JHA, there were 36,008 dispatched 911 calls in Jesup/Wayne County, of which 28 were calls to JHA properties, for an extremely low percentage of .077%. These 28 calls included ambulance and subpoena/warrant delivery calls. Pictured above are Major Curtis Hand of the WCSD, Vic Drawdy, Director of Resident and Employee Services for the JHA, Charlotte Beason, Secretary of the JHA Resident Advisory Board, and Captain Joe Naia of the WCSD.
