

ANOTHER MAJOR DISCOVERY – GEORGE’S BIRTHDAY!

Image that you seriously need to find a piece of information. I mean you really NEED it! REALLY NEED IT!!! You look in all the places where it ought to be. You even look in places where you know it will not be, on the off-chance that someone else made a mistake and put it in the wrong place. To your dismay, the information you NEED so desperately is simply not available.

Image that you have this strong NEED for five years - for ten years - for fifteen years! Frustrating? You bet! Discouraging? Yes. It's like an itch you can't scratch.

To those of you who have contracted this life-changing infirmity called “genealogy,” the above mentioned scenario can be read with a smile and a nod of the head, signifying “been there; done that.”

This is indeed what Peg Kwadrat, our cousin from Reston, VA has been dealing with for years and years. You see, Peg is the family historian for the Hockensmith family -- a position she inherited from her aunt and uncle. She has been instrumental in chronicling our family history for almost twenty years. Peg’s main interest and specialty is focused on our family’s early history in America. This part of our family research could not be in abler hands. Peg is a tenacious and extremely thorough researcher.

Most of the information we have on Konrad Hackenschmidt and his sons and their families has come by means of the diligent efforts of Peg. Until very recently we knew the birth date of only one of Konrad’s four known sons. That was the birth date of Johann Michael Hockersmith who was born on 14 Ju11743.

Today I can gladly announce that, again through the diligent research of Peg, we now know the birth date of George Hockersmith (supposedly the oldest son of Konrad).

You see, our Peg is pretty crafty. Having exhausted most research material which might contain pertinent information on our family progenitor Konrad Hackenschmidt, Peg had taken to gathering information on associated families in hope that it would yield further insights and clues to the life of Konrad in those very early years after his arrival in America.

One of those associated families was that of Michael ROHNER [various spellings], the witness at the baptism of Konrad's son Johann Michael in 1743. This event is recorded in the Trinity Lutheran Church records. According to Peg, this Mr. RHONER had turned out to be very elusive, not appearing again in the Trinity records nor any other early Maryland records which she has searched. She therefore started to broaden her search to include Pennsylvania.

The Trinity Lutheran Church is located in Lancaster, P A and so she began searching around Lancaster. The Pennsylvania German Society (PGS) has sponsored the translation and publication of many of the early German church records including the ones at New Holland. Peg explains that New Holland is only a short way from Lancaster and she has driven between the towns numerous times. It seemed logical to look for Michael ROHNER in the New Holland records. As a member of the PGS, Peg tried to buy a copy of the book containing the New Holland records but found that it was out of print! Not to be found in the Washington area, Peg finally tracked down a copy in the library of the Historical Society of York County, Pennsylvania. It was there that Peg first got her hands on the book which is titled:

Sources and Documents of the Pennsylvania Germans: II

The gold nugget in this dusty manuscript was found on page 26 with a baptismal entry for one Joh. Georg HACKENSCHMIDT, son of Cunradt HACKENSCHMIDT. The record shows that Johann Georg was born on 10 May 1741 and was baptized on 13 Nov 1741 and this ceremony was witnessed by Michael REIN and his wife, in place of their son Joh. Georg, now a minor [whatever that means].

Peg, on behalf of the entire family I want to thank you for your tireless efforts in recording our family history. Thank you for the countless hours you have spent searching those dusty, dank achieves. Congratulations on another MAJOR discovery of our heritage. I don't know how we would manage without you!

Margaret Jean (Peg) Hockensmith married Carl Frederic Kwadrat and is the d/o Chester Ray Hockensmith, s/o Joseph Nevin, s/o Caleb Bailey, s/o Obediah, s/o Samuel, s/o George, s/o Konrad Hackenschmidt.

THANKS. PEG!

Area man recalls 90 years in Shippensburg

Many around the community know R. Lee Hockersmith. Between his walks and his daily trip to Select Family Restaurant, nearly everyone in the area has at some point seen him. Many of the town's older residents remember when he would deliver their groceries for his father's store. Most remember the days when Hockersmith was the only heating repairman in town. The amazing recollections, however, are his. For the past 90 years Hockersmith has been a participant in the Shippensburg experience and he remembers nearly every minute of it.

Hockersmith recently sat down and reminisced about the way Shippensburg used to be:

“Back in those days, there wasn’t much to it. We had the store and it did as much or more business than any store in or between Hagerstown or Harrisburg. There were very few automobiles back then. There were no paved roads and most people had a horse and buggy. I remember when I was seven, they built the first macadam road, that was what is now Orrstown Road,” said Hockersmith.

He also shared fond memories of the store.

My dad owned Hockersmith’s Store, where the Pizza House is now. We had that store for 104 years. It closed in 1974 because we just ran out of Hockersmiths. We didn’t have any electricity, there was very little throughout the town. As the kids got older, we worked more in the store until we graduated college. The store was kind of a gathering place. The men would loaf around the store. My mother lived next door and there was always people over there. We had everything brought in by freight. In those days, since people didn’t have cars we had to deliver their groceries for them, and we delivered everything in the food line,” Hockersmith said.

R. LEE HOCKERSMITH

R. Lee Hockersmith was born on July 16, 1907 at what is now 200 W. King St. to John P. and Emma Jane Hockersmith. He was one of 11 children, eight boys and three girls. “Everybody knew the Hockersmith kids though so it was really easy to get in trouble,” he added. As he continued to talk about his family, it became obvious that it meant a lot to him.

“We had quite a family. I had an exceptional mother. She made all our clothes, in addition to doing all the wash and the ironing and cooking and cleaning. There is always something going on when you have that many children and you have the most prosperous business in town, but my mother handled it well.”

Hockersmith graduated from Shippensburg High School in 1926. At that time the school, which was where Episcopal square is now, had three African-American students at the high school even though the "colored school" was just a half a block away. After high school, Hockersmith attended the Cumberland Valley Normal School, now Shippensburg University.

Later in life, Hockersmith began to work on oil heaters. He devised a way to clean the units cheaply and easily. He started out doing it for his friends and some of his family. As he was the only person in Shippensburg able to clean the units, word spread quickly.

"I turned down more work than I could handle," he said.

Hockersmith, using his keen business sense, decided to go into business for himself repairing heaters and he kept at it for nearly 40 years.

"I did all the work myself for a while then I hired some help; there is only so much you can do. People though would still call me to come out and check to make sure it was done right. It usually was. Of course I never charged people for that visit. I would guess I helped every plumber in this town at some point. If they needed some help they would call me and I never had a problem with that," he said.

In his 90 years on earth, Hockersmith, whose health, according to him, is beginning to fail, has gained some valuable insights about life and about his town.

"I guess there are plenty of people over 90, but not that many that get around and walk and live like I do. I am very fortunate," he said with a smile.

His face then started to grow long. "I remember what all these buildings used to be. I can still go up and down the street and tell you probably everybody in this town. I remember all the nice houses that should have been restored. Instead, they were torn down for a parking lot or what not. The neighbors were very neighborly at that time. I am sorry it is not like it was when I was young."

Hockersmith began again to smile, "I think, however, right now things are a lot better."

Thanks go to Barbara Hockersmith-Hershey, Robert Lee's great-niece, for sending me the above newspaper clipping and for service above and beyond the call of duty in obtaining the photograph contained in the article. Barbara is the daughter of Bruce Weidlich, Jr., s/o Bruce Weidlich, s/o John Perry Hockersmith.

Robert Lee Hockersmith is the son of John Perry, s/o Joseph Landis, s/o Samuel Hockersmith, s/o George Hockensmith, s/o Jacob Hockersmith, s/o Konrad Hackenschmidt.

David Bruce HAWKERSMITH

David Bruce Hawkersmith, 47, died at Vanderbilt University Hospital in Nashville, Davidson Co., TN on 21 Oct 1997 after a long illness. He was born 17 Aug 1950, the son of Marion Francis and Mildred Ruth (Powers) Hawkersmith. He is survived by his parents and three brothers, Gordon Dennis, Marion Dwight, and Jeffery Darrell Hawkersmith. He was laid to rest at Watson-Gamble Memorial Park in Winchester, Franklin Co., TN on 23 Oct 1997.

Our sympathy and love go out to Marion and Mildred and their family in this time of loss. You are in our prayers daily. May God bless you with his richest blessings and grant unto you the comfort that can only come from Him.

Listed on page 20 of this newsletter you will find the name of a new family researcher, Donna J. YAKE. Donna is assisting her niece, Kristi Lynn HOCKENSMITH with tracing her roots. They have done an outstanding job in documenting the descendants of John and Elizabeth (Staub) HOCKENSMITH. John was the s/o David, s/o Jacob, s/o Konrad HACKENSCHMIDT. I want to share with you the fruits of their labor.
