

Inter-Marriage Between Families Was Very Common In Our Early History

In this issue of our Family Newsletter I want to focus on two or three generations of four separate families; namely the HOCKERSMITHs, the RICEs, the HARBAUGHs, and the SPRINGERs.

All of these families have ties back to Frederick County, Maryland and many of these pioneers made the arduous journey to Kentucky in the late eighteenth century.

Inter-marriage between members of these families was quite common. Remember that in those days there was not a huge population of suitable spouses available. As these family members seemed to migrate together, it was common to find the only neighbors for miles around were cousins to each other. Until fairly recently the extent of kinship between these families was, to say the least, confusing.

Perhaps in a future issue we can explore the inter-marriage between the HOCKENSMITH, the SIPES, and the MELLOTT families. This, I believe, will be quite a difficult undertaking, as I suspect the kinship among these families to be more complex than that depicted in this issue. Any takers?

I hope that in the next few pages, some light will be shed on this issue. I will apologize right now for the amount of redundancy in this material, but I couldn't think of a better way to present it.

from Kentucky: A History of the State, Battle, Perrin, & Kniffin, 5th ed., 1887, Jessamine Co.

MICHAEL NAVE (or NEFF) was born in 1734 in Wurtemberg, Germany, and immigrated to this country about 1755, settled in Juniata County, Penn., and died in 1866. His son, Leonard Nave, was born in Juniata County, Penn., in 1768, and removed to Estill County, Ky., about 1790. He was a blacksmith by trade, and subsequently carried on the business in Lexington.

Later in life Leonard removed to Jessamine and lived with his son Dr. Peter Nave, and was engaged in business at that place. He died in 1842 at the home of his son, Peter.

Leonard had four sons: (1) John, (2) Dr. Peter, (3) Michael (who settled in the neighborhood of Dayton) and (4) Jonathan; four daughters: (1) Mrs. Corman (of Jessamine County, Ky.), (2) Mrs. Peter Hoover (of Jessamine County, Ky.), (3) Mrs. John Dickerson (of Indiana) and (4) Elizabeth Woodward.

Jonathan Nave was born February 14, 1799, and was also a blacksmith. He settled in Jessamine County, about two miles from Nicholasville on the Lexington Pike. He purchased a farm where his son Jacob A. Nave now resides, engaged in the business of blacksmithing and continued in the business until about twelve years before his death, November 21, 1862. In 1829 he married Miranda Springer, of Kentucky, who was born in 1803 and died October 1, 1882.

They had seven children:

John L. Nave, who now resided in Pulaski County, was the first child.

Jacob A. Nave, the second child, was born in 1832, and was reared on the old homestead where he still resides. At the death of his father he entered into partnership with his mother in managing the farm until her death, in 1882, when his brother James associated himself with him, and they are now engaged in working two farms, which contain 325 acres, and they are also extensively engaged in raising stock of various kinds, paying special attention to Shorthorn stock. He is a progressive man, and a gentleman of genial manners.

Huldah J. Nave, the third child, was born August 16, 1833, was reared on the homestead, and, November 23, 1854, married Samuel H. Arnett, a native of Jessamine County, who died September 16, 1869. By this marriage Mrs. Arnett had four children: Millard F., Maggie (Mrs. William Lowen), Samuel and Virginia. Mrs. Arnett resides upon her farm containing 100 acres, which adjoins her brother Jacob's, and which is managed by her son, Millard F.

Amanda M. Nave, the fourth child, married Merritt S. Barkley, resides in Sherman, Tex., and has three living children: John, Charles and Miranda.

James M. Nave was the fifth child, born January 30, 1837, on the homestead. He has always been engaged in farming and is now associated with his brother, Jacob A., and resides upon one of the farms owned by himself and brother, situated about a half miles west of his brother's residence. He was married, May 4, 1875, to Miss Judith Rice, daughter of Squire James Rice, of Madison County, Ky. She died August 13, 1877, and October 7, 1879, he married Miss Nannie Randolph, daughter of Moses Randolph of Fayette County. She died October 16, 1881. James M. Nave is a member of the Christian Church.

Michael H. Nave, the sixth child, was born March 20, 1839. He was reared on the old homestead and in 1872, purchased his present home, containing 375 acres, which is located about one mile and a half east of the homestead. He was married, in 1869, to Miss Mattie Harbaugh, of Jessamine County. He has six living children: Jesse B., Ida M., Moses L., Sallie B., Jennie June and William Harvey.

Virginia Nave, the seventh child, was born July 3, 1842, and married Robert Duncan in 1864. To this union have been born five children: Maggie F., Robert J., Elizabeth H., Miranda S. and Mary Emma. The grandfather, Jacob Springer, was of Swedish descent and a native of Maryland. He came to Jessamine County about 1790 and died June 21, 1852. His mother was Christina Anderson, a native of Delaware. His wife was Sophy Rice of Jessamine County.

- 51 F iv. Julia SPRINGER.
 Julia married STARR.
- 52 F v. Ida SPRINGER.
 Ida married TOLIN.
- 53 M vi. Morton SPRINGER.

And there you have it. All of the inter-marriage between the HOCKERSMITH, the RICE, the SPRINGER, and the HARBAUGH families, that I am currently aware of.

FAREWELL

from The Harrodsburg Herald (Mercer Co., KY) dated 19 January 2006

Opal Hockensmith

Opal Hockensmith, 84, died Saturday, Jan. 14, 2006 at The James B. Haggin Memorial Hospital (Harrodsburg, Mercer Co., KY).

Born Dec. 8, 1921 in Woodford County, she was the daughter of the late Nealy and Debbie Floren McDaniel and the widow of Onie Hockensmith.

She was a former nursing assistant at the Kentucky State Hospital. She and her husband also owned and operated Hockensmith Grocery in Burgin for 16 years. She was a member of the Burgin Baptist Church. She enjoyed quilting, crossword puzzles, reading her Bible and was an avid University of Kentucky sports fan.

Survivors include: two sons, Ronnie (Linda) Hockensmith of Harrodsburg and Phillip (Dee Dee) Hockensmith of Mercer County; three daughters, Doris (Don) Bugg of Burgin, Sue (Richard) Lewis and Debbie (John) Pinkston, both of Mercer County; one half-sister, Christine Baker of Versailles; three half-brothers, William McDaniel of Versailles, Sterling McDaniel of Lawrenceburg and Leonard McDaniel of Georgetown; 10 grandchildren, and 21 great-grandchildren.

In addition to her husband, she was preceded in death by one sister, Catherine Hockensmith, and one half-brother, Eugene McDaniel.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Jan. 17, at the Alexander and Royalty Funeral Home

Heredity: A Genealogy Poem by Grandpa Tucker

I saw a duck the other day.
It had the feet of my Aunt Faye.
Then it walked, was heading South.
It waddled like my Uncle Ralph.

And when it turned, I must propose,
Its bill was formed like Aunt Jane's nose.
I thought, "Oh, no! It's just my luck,
Someday I'll look just like a duck!"

I sobbed to Mom about my fears,
And she said, "Honey, dry your tears.
You look like me, so walk with pride.
Those folks are all from Daddy's side."

Wives of Conrad Hockersmith ca 1720-1795

Those of us who have been searching this family for many years believe that just about everyone in America who has an ancestor with the surname Hockensmith, Hockersmith, Hawkersmith, etc. is a descendant of Conrad who arrived in Philadelphia on August 27, 1739.

We don't know if Conrad was married or how old he was when he arrived in America. The only clue as to his age comes from a deed recorded in Frederick County many years later. This 1780 deed says that Conrad Hockersmith aged about 60 appeared and affirmed some land boundaries. From this, albeit not precise item, we can estimate that Conrad was about 19 or 20 in 1739. Hence he was an age when he could have been single or married. Unfortunately none of the women aboard the Snow Betsy have been identified nor have we been able to connect Conrad with any of his shipmates.

The first indicator we have that Conrad married is November 13, 1741 when his son George, born May 10 1741, was baptized. The baptism was performed by John Casper Stover, an itinerant Lutheran pastor who traveled widely among the 18th century German communities. We don't know where the baptism was performed but the record ended up in the church records of the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in New Holland, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Conrad's wife is not mentioned in the baptism record. The witnesses were Michael Rein and wife. There are no further Hockensmith references in these church records but Michael Rein does appear many times and apparently lived in the New Holland area although his connection to Conrad is unknown.

On August 3, 1743 another son of Conrad, Michael (born July 14, 1743) was baptized. Again there is no clue as to the identity of Conrad's wife. And again the baptism was performed by pastor, Valentine Kraft who was associated with many different Lutheran congregations. This time the baptism record is found in the Trinity Lutheran Church of Lancaster, Lancaster County, Pa. On the same day Conrad and his wife were witness to the baptism to Martin Adam Erbin, child of Billi Erbin's widow Elisabeth, after the father's death. Neither Michael Rohner, nor the Erbins appear to have established ties to the Trinity Lutheran church or the Lancaster area and their connection to Conrad is also unknown.

Conrad Hockensmith had two other sons, Jacob and Conrad Jr. in addition to the above mentioned George and Michael. In the absence of evidence to the contrary, it is the generally accepted that a single woman was the mother of all four sons.

In 1770 we get our first clue as to the name of Conrad's wife. On May 12, 1770 a deed was recorded where Conrad Hockersmith of Frederick County sold 25 acres of land to Stephen Brunner. Maria Christiana Hockersmith, wife of Conrad Hockersmith released her right of dower. In a November 20, 1774 deed, another sale, she was identified as Mary.

Mary or Mary Christiana may have died by August 28, 1780 when Conrad transferred goods he had purchased from Thomas McClain in 1765 to William McClain. No wife was listed on that deed. She was certainly dead by 1787 when Conrad married the widow of Frederick Weinholtz.

The first known record of Mary Anna Christina Hearse is from the probate records of her father. When Conrad Hearse wrote his will on August 24, 1774 he didn't mention his children by name. He just said that he had a son and three daughters. However they are later identified in his estate distribution record as Harmon Herse, Catharine Lawrence, Christiana Weinholtz and Mary Scarth[?].

Frederick Winholts wrote his will on May 28, 1778 and mentioned his wife Anna Christina and children Elizabeth Fishborn, Catherine, Barbara, Mary and Frederick Winholts. Frederick was still under age 14 at the time and Anna Christina was one of the executors. The will was proved June 22, 1778. Settlement of Frederick Winholtz's estate dragged on for years. A suit was filed in the March 1787 Frederick County court term by Samuel Chase against Ann Christina Wineholtz, administrator of Frederick Wineholtz. The case was carried through the August term and in November was amended to include Conrad Hockersmith whom Ann Christina had married.

When the deed was recorded on November 19, 1788 for 211 acres that Conrad transferred to his son George for 200 pounds and the “natural love and affection” he bore toward his son George, Christina, wife of Conrad Hockensmith released dower.

For the first census taken in 1790 Conrad's household consisted of one free white male age sixteen and over and one free white female. And on October 3, 1791 Anna Christina Hockersmith finally reported the distribution of Frederick Wineholtz's estate.

When Conrad Hockensmith wrote his will May 31, 1793 he called his wife Mary, made provisions for her and mentioned goods he owned prior to his marriage to her. Conrad's will was probated May 15, 1795. No further estate records were filed.

We have no knowledge as to where Mary Anna Christina Winholtz Hockensmith was living when the 1800 census was taken. She wrote her will on November 17, 1806 and named her daughters Elizabeth Landis, Catharine White and Mary Orr and granddaughter Elizabeth Mesler. She gave a legacy to the heirs of Frederick Winholts to be paid to Catharine Winholts and appointed daughter Elizabeth and son-in-law, Henry Landis as executors. Her will was presented for probate on August 24, 1809 to the Frederick County court.
